

The Pennsylvania School Study Council presents:

BUDGET PLANNING TO ADDRESS THE CURRENT AND FUTURE FISCAL REALITY - 2016

A one hour webinar on Tuesday, March 22nd @ 10:30 AM
Broadcasted from the Krause Innovation Studio at Penn State University

This presentation is aimed at superintendents, business administrators principals, school board members, negotiators and fact finders

Featured Speaker – Dr. Bill Hartman

Dr. Hartman is a Professor of Education in the College of Education at Pennsylvania State University and a co-founder and the Executive Director of the Center for Total Quality Schools at Penn State. At Penn State he teaches courses in Public School Finance, School District Budgeting, Financial Modeling and Data Analysis, and Decision Making. Dr. Hartman is a well-known expert in school finance and focuses on understanding the impacts of the current economic crisis on school districts – the New Fiscal Reality.

Topics of Discussion:

- Key fiscal issues facing school districts – the worst may be yet to come
- Potential impacts of the State Budget stalemate on the fiscal, instructional and operational components
- Understanding new state and local revenue limitations coupled with mandatory expenditure increases

Your questions for Dr. Hartman are invited. Questions emailed by March 18th to ljw11@psu.edu will be coordinated and given priority to the questions submitted in the Webinar Chatroom.
