Colonel Arthur Athens recently left the federal government, having served for the past decade as the Director of the U.S. Naval Academy’s Vice Admiral James B. Stockdale Center for Ethical Leadership and previously, as the Naval Academy’s first Distinguished Military Professor of Leadership.

Dr. Adolph Brown, III, works with schools and corporations around the world to implement best practices that support peak performance and educational excellence. He has more than 30 years of experience working with issues of social justice, equity, education and diversity.

Colonel Athens is a retired Marine Corps officer with significant command and staff assignments in all four Marine Aircraft Wings and an instructor tour with Marine Aviation Weapons and Tactics Squadron One (the Marine Corps’ equivalent to the Navy’s Top Gun school). He also served as a White House Fellow under President Ronald Reagan and as the Special Assistant to the NASA Administrator following the Space Shuttle Challenger accident.
