Pennsylvania
Principals Conference

October 13-14, 2019 - The Penn Stater
#LEAD19 #PAPRINCIPALS

Greetings From Your Conference Co-Chairs!

On behalf of the entire conference committee, we formally invite you to attend our LEAD19 Conference. We recognize that there are many professional development opportunities available for you, so we want to make sure you are aware of the benefits of attending the LEAD19 Conference. The conference will provide you the opportunity to:

1. Invest in your own professional growth
2. Return to your school with a new perspective and ideas
3. Network and socialize with your peers
4. Hear from renowned keynote speakers
5. Earn PIL hours for attending a PIL course

You do not have to just take our word for it. Read the following comments from those who attended the LEAD18 Conference:

- ✓ "This is a quality conference. It is a highlight of the year. Thank you."
- ✓ "You threw a very informative and friendly conference. Keep up the good work."
- ✓ "I enjoyed the conference and found the sessions beneficial."
- ✓ "I found it useful to have other principals and leaders share their perspectives and insights."
- ✓ "Valuable insight-time to talk with peers."

We hope you are able to join us this year. We look forward to seeing you at The Penn Stater on October 13-14, 2019.

Yours in Education,

Stephanie A. Keebler and Dr. Kevin A. Peters, Co-Chairs, LEAD19 Conference Committee

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

"The Perfect Storm" - Sunday, October 13 - 1:00-2:30 p.m.

Michael S. Snell, Ed.D., is Superintendent of Central York School District, a K-12 public school district serving 5,800 students in grades K-12. He has held the position since 2009.

Dr. Snell joined Central York School District as Assistant Superintendent in 2007. Prior to that time, Dr. Snell served as Assistant Superintendent of West York Area School District from 2003 through 2007; Principal of West York Area Middle School from 1998-2003; and Assistant Principal in the Hempfield School District from 1994-1998.

Dr. Michael Snell

Dr. Snell recently published a book titled: Clockwork: Time-Saving Routines and Tested Strategies for Success and consults with school leaders and teams interested in improving organization and leadership and has presented on this topic regionally.

Dr. Snell was named the 2018 Pennsylvania Superintendent of the Year by the Pennsylvania Association of School Administrators.

"Crucial Conversations About America's Schools" - Monday, October 14 - 3:00-4:15 p.m.

Dr. John Draper has energized audiences of educators, school leaders and community members in over 45 states. His presentations are marked by thoughtful analysis, engaging narrative and a refreshing passion for the mission of public schools. He makes research fun!

As the CEO of the Educational Research Service in Washington, D.C., Dr. Draper spawned conversations among school leaders nationwide on engaging staff and communities in active support of our schools.

Dr. John Draper

He is now a nationwide consultant working with the National School Public Relations Association to expand support for public schools. For more information, visit: www.JohnDraper.org
