FEATURING KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Dr. John Draper

Dr. John Draper has energized audiences of educators, school leaders and community members in over 45 states. His presentations are marked by thoughtful analysis, engaging narrative and a refreshing passion for the mission of public schools. He makes research fun!

As the CEO of the Educational Research Service in Washington, D.C., Dr. Draper spawned conversations among school leaders nationwide on engaging staff and communities in active support of our schools. His talks are known for getting to the root of the research and translating it into focused, proactive leadership practices.

He is now a nationwide consultant with the National School Public Relations Association to expand support for public schools.

Dr. Michael Snell

Dr. Michael Snell became Superintendent of the Central York School District in January 2009. Previously, he served as Central York School District Assistant Superintendent.

In addition to his experience with the District, Dr. Snell also served as Assistant Superintendent of West York Area School District from 2003-2007.

He was named the 2018 Pennsylvania Superintendent of the Year by the PA Association of School Administrators.

Dr. Snell received his doctorate in educational leadership and a master's degree in educational leadership and policy studies from Temple University.
