SCOPE OF CONFERENCE:

The current drug epidemic has created a vast impact on our society as a whole. While few people have not been personally impacted, there is a population that we fear is at the highest risk, the children. Gaudenzia is passionate in the cause to helping families heal, but we need help. This training is designed to reach out to anyone who works with or cares for children. We want to provide the tools to help a child that has been affected by addiction, so together we can have a larger positive impact on such a devastating situation.
