

Free Seminar for School District Administrators

Sponsored by PAESSP & McGraw-Hill - Intervention

The Administrator's Key Role in Responding to Struggling Students

Presented By Wayne Callender

In Two Locations:

Thursday, April 25, 2013

Berks County IU 14

1111 Commons Boulevard, Reading, PA

Friday, April 26, 2013

Midwestern IU 4

453 Maple Street, Grove City, PA

Wayne Callender is an educational consultant, trainer and author who has worked with over 400 elementary and secondary schools across the nation. He recently served as a regional education coordinator with the Center on Teaching and Learning at the University of Oregon and is the past statewide RTI coordinator of The Results Based Model for the State of Idaho. He has authored numerous articles on RTI and created elementary and secondary training manuals.

Target Audience:

- School and District Administrators, Supervisors and Leaders

Program Schedule:

- 8:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. – Continental Breakfast (Provided)
- 9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. – Program
- 11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. – Lunch (Provided)
- 12:30 p.m. – 2:00 p.m. – Program Continued

Program Description:

The administrator's role in assisting struggling students is vital to the educational growth of these students and improvement in overall school scores indicating academic achievement. Wayne Callender has specialized in developing coaching and leadership training for school leaders. He is the author of Response to Intervention: A Practical Guide for Educators. He will share his practical ideas for improving struggling student success during the workshop.

To Register:

Click on the link below for the registration form. Complete and return to: Kathy Sheaffer at sheaffer@paessp.org. The deadline to register is March 30, 2013. Seating is limited.