

Diversity and Equity Position Statement

The PA Principals Association respects, values, and celebrates the unique characteristics and perspectives of the diverse populations within schools of our commonwealth. We believe that equity-driven leadership seeks to create more humane, just, safe, inclusive, and culturally responsive school communities through a commitment to welcoming the unique voices of all stakeholders.