

Julie Randall Romig

Julie Randall Romig is the Director of Strategic Communications for Lincoln Intermediate Unit 12 (LIU12), and provides communications consultation and support to 25 school districts, with a focus on crisis communications and communications planning. Prior to joining the LIU12 team in September 2021, Julie served as the Director of Communications and Marketing for Central York School District, a position she held for 16 years.

Julie earned her bachelor's degree from The Pennsylvania State University, and her master's degree in Strategic Public Relations from The George Washington University.