Dear First-Time Conference Attendee:

I would like to welcome you to the Pennsylvania Principals Association's LEAD22 Conference.

We hope you will find our conference an informative and productive experience. I urge you to learn, share and network as much as possible during this conference.

If you are interested in getting involved with the PA Principals Association, please share your interest with our staff and officers. They will take your name and other information and forward it to the appropriate people.

As President, I thank you for the opportunity to serve you and the PA Principals Association.

As a first-time attendee, please take time to introduce yourself to me on Sunday or Monday (before the exhibits close at 1 p.m. on 10/17/22), and I will give you a card that may be redeemed for a gift at the PA Principals' Booth (No. 44-45) in the Exhibit Hall on Monday, October 17, 2022!

I hope you enjoy this year's conference, our excellent speakers and the opportunity to share with our peers from across Pennsylvania!

You will receive instructions for the new event app a few days prior to the conference. Please download and join for important conference information and announcements.
