

Dr. Jonathan G. Ross
2020 – 2022 President of the Pennsylvania Principals Association

Dr. Jonathan G. Ross served as the President of the Pennsylvania Principals Association from 2020-2022. He is the proud principal of Lionville Middle School in the Downingtown Area School District and has served in the role of middle school principal for over 21 years.

Jon began his career in public education in 1992 as a middle school learning support teacher. In 2001, his professional dreams were realized when he became principal of his own school – Drexel Middle School in the Upper Darby School District. Throughout his career, Dr. Ross has been blessed to work with many talented and passionate educators, students and families who all played a part in his being named the 2009 Pennsylvania National Distinguished Principal (NDP) for Middle School in conjunction with the National Association of Elementary School Principals' program. In 2010, Dr. Ross was appointed principal of Lionville Middle School in the Downingtown Area School District.

Jon has been an active member of the PA Principals Association Board of Directors since 2014. He held the position of PA Principals Association President-Elect and served from 2014-2019 as the East-III Elementary Regional Representative. He currently serves as chair of the NDP Selection Committee and is a former member of the Editorial Review Board for The Pennsylvania Administrator magazine. He also served as co-chair for two state conferences and as a member of multiple NDP Selection Committees. He was named 2009 Pennsylvania National Distinguished Principal (NDP) for Middle School in conjunction with the National Association of Elementary School Principals' program.