

Editor's Note ...

It is difficult to believe that the school year is more than half over and spring is just around the corner. We know this is a busy time for principals and education leaders, with testing, spring activities and athletics, as well as end-of-the-school-year events, on the horizon. And, we are here for you! The PA Principals Association continues to advocate on your behalf, provide support and guidance and develop and facilitate valuable professional development opportunities for members. We are currently gearing up for Summit23, which is being held from August 6-8, 2023, in King of Prussia. (See pages 9-10 for more information and how to register.) Summit23 will take the place of our fall LEAD Conference. The summer PA Educational Leadership Summit and our LEAD Conference have merged and will continue to provide high-quality professional development pertaining to principals, assistant principals and other education leaders. Summit23 is being hosted jointly with the PA Association for School Administrators (PASA) and administrative teams are highly encouraged to attend!

Check out the many interesting articles in this issue with topics such as SMART Mentoring, Pathways to Success, School Climate, Student Health and Safety, just to name a few. If you are interested in submitting an article for the spring theme edition, please see page 44. The theme is “Creative Solutions to Current Issues in Education.”

Enjoy this issue!
