

Session Description: Join us for this fast paced, one-hour simulation focusing on decisions school leaders face. Simulations provide an opportunity for leaders to make decisions and learn about their impact in a safe environment. This session will also hone your people skills, provide practice for having tough conversations and address issues that are a part of a school leader's day.