

PA PRINCIPALS' FACT SHEET

ABOUT US

The PA Principals Association, NAESP and NASSP are the only education organizations that speak for elementary, middle level and secondary school principals, assistant principals and supervisors throughout Pennsylvania and across the nation.

Whether you are a new or veteran administrator, you can make a difference for your school, for your state and for our nation. If you want to change minds about what's really happening and what's really needed in education, join the PA Principals Association today!

- ✓ PA Principals Association has nearly 3,500 members in the state.
- ✓ Pennsylvania is the largest state affiliate in both national associations and has considerable influence at the national level.

MEMBERSHIP

Three categories of membership:

1) Active - All principals, assistant principals, supervisors, directors and coordinators under Act 93, and who are directly involved in the education of children, can be active members.

2) Aspiring Educational Leader - You may join our association, at a reduced rate, if you have aspirations of becoming a working principal or assistant principal. The program is open to anyone who is currently in an administrative/supervisory certification program (three-year limit). After three years, provided you are not an active principal, assistant principal or supervisor, you may continue your membership, also at a reduced rate.

3) Retired - You may continue your association membership as a retired member at a reduced rate or you may choose a lifetime membership.

LEGAL BENEFITS

Members receive $2 million (elementary and secondary) in individual professional liability coverage PLUS up to $10,000 in due process funds ($1,000 for every year of continuous membership) up to $10,000 (from your national association). This benefit is critically important since we receive several calls a day from members who need to access their legal benefits. Members who have lapsed lose their legal benefits (coverage for claims based on incidents that occur while an active member).

The PA Principals Association also provides you with Act 93 assistance.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

A range of professional development opportunities are available at the state level for individual principals, assistant principals and other education leaders. These can be held at conferences, in your regional IU or at your school district.

- ✓ Annual Summit conference / pre-summit workshops
- ✓ Act 45 / PIL-approved courses
- ✓ One-hour PD sessions / book clubs
- ✓ Micro-credentials (Act 45 - Learn at your own pace)
- ✓ Numerous PD opportunities offered by national associations

LEGISLATIVE

The PA Principals Association advocates on your behalf at the state and national levels, and is the members' legislative voice at legislative meetings, State Board of Education meetings, informal and formal sessions with Department of Education officials and coalitions which promote and foster the views and perspectives of principals.

PUBLICATIONS / COMMUNICATIONS

Members receive a professional e-newsletter (The Advisory), an award-winning magazine (The Pennsylvania Administrator) and various other communications, including informative broadcast emails, that provide members with news on association activities, proven practices, legislative issues and education trends.

For timely information, visit our website at www.papprincipals.org or check us out on Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn. Members also receive an assortment of printed and digital publications from their national association.

PEER NETWORKING

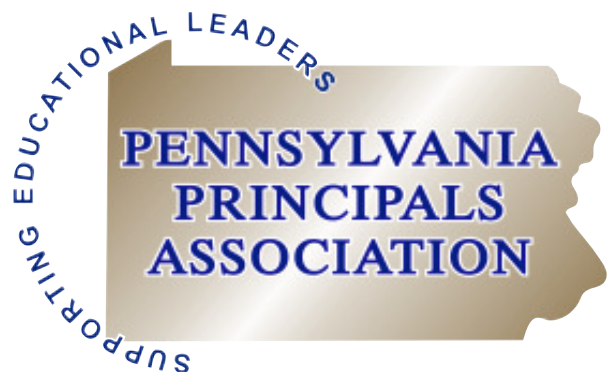

If you join the PA Principals Association, you will have the opportunity to learn from other principals and share accepted practices, either through the annual conference, workshops or through participation on state-level committees or on the board of directors.

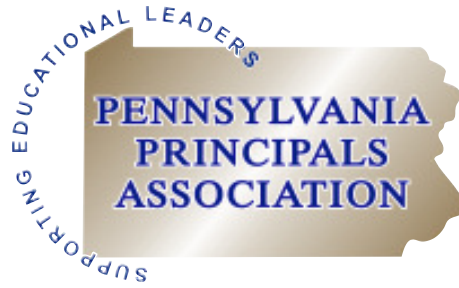

The PA Principals Association has expanding opportunities for you to be directly involved in the work of principals and supervisors throughout the state.

To become involved, contact your regional representative (they can be found on the website at www.papprincipals.org) or call the state office at (717) 732-4999.

ADDITIONAL BENEFITS

The association's Alternative Funding Committee cultivates relationships with corporate partners who provide benefits such as retirement planning, auto and homeowners insurance, long-term care insurance, life insurance and financial planning assistance to our members.

Serving Principals, Assistant Principals and Other Educational Leaders

Lead Like Fred: Mister Rogers' Lessons for Principals
 Monday, August 5, 2024

Gregg Behr & Ryan Rydzewski

Gregg Behr

Gregg Behr, executive director of The Grable Foundation since 2006, is a father and children's advocate. For more than 15 years, he has helped lead Remake Learning—a network of educators, technologists, designers and makers he founded in 2007—to international renown. Among the foremost examples of learning ecosystems, Remake Learning has turned heads everywhere from The White House to the World Economic Forum for its efforts to ignite children's curiosity; encourage creativity; and foster justice, joy and belonging in schools, libraries, museums and other sites of learning. A graduate of the University of Notre Dame and Duke University, Gregg holds honorary degrees from Carlow University and Saint Vincent College. He's an advisor to The Brookings Institution and The Fred Rogers Institute, and has been honored by President Obama, the Disruptor Foundation, ISTE and AASA as an innovator and thought leader.

PA Principals Association PIL Program

The Team: Building Leadership Success that Improves Student Learning

30 Act 45 PIL Hours

The Pennsylvania Principals Association will bring this PIL workshop to your school or district.

Goals of the Program:

This course is designed for building and district level teams or individuals looking to improve their leadership skills regardless of position. The text for this course is The 360° Leader by John Maxwell. Beyond the author's excellent leadership advice, chapters focus on leading down if you are the boss, leading up if you are the assistant and leading across to members on your team.

Participants could include any of the following:

- A principal and assistant principal. (1&2)
- A superintendent and assistant superintendent (and other cabinet members). (1&2)
- A principal, or group of principals in a district, without an assistant principal(s) who wants to improve their leadership ability. (1-1-1)
- An assistant principal who wants to improve their "leading up" leadership ability. (2-2-2)
- A school or district team. (1-2-3)

Learning Objectives:

- Review, discuss and improve upon the team relationship at the building level / district level to improve overall effectiveness and improve student learning.
- Establish routine opportunities for communication between the team and others.
- Assess trust at the building level / district level and identify pitfalls and opportunities to improve the importance of trust.
- Assess and reflect upon their personal leadership style to maximize impact on the team.
- Develop strategies for leading up, leading down and leading across.
- Create daily, weekly, monthly and yearly opportunities to talk about building leadership, building culture and student learning.

Program Requirements:

- Read text and complete Book Read Summary.
- Complete an Action Plan Summary.
- Complete a Performance Goal Template.

EARN ACT 45 HOURS AT HOME

Micro-Credentials

The PA Principals Association now offers a total of 26 micro-credentials on pertinent topics for school leaders. You start and complete a micro-credential on your own time and at your own pace. At the completion, you submit a badge to us and we upload your hours to PDE. This is a great way to earn all of your necessary Act 45 hours!

What are Micro-Credentials?

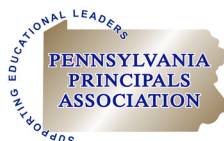

- A Micro-credential is not a course. It is an online, on-demand way to earn a badge that demonstrates your competency. The process includes submitting artifacts to be evaluated by an assessor in order to earn a sharable badge that you can use in your resumé, email signature as well as social networks.
- A Micro-credential is a career-building opportunity. Micro-credentials evidence your career skills and growth in a tangible, highly-visible way. Completing a micro-credential could potentially lead to salary advancement or help you stand out in a pool of job candidates. You can also earn professional development credit toward your licensure requirements.
- Micro-credentials are scalable learning opportunities. You can continue to add more credentials to your resume over time to demonstrate new skills and increase your marketability!

If you think you might be interested in signing up for a micro-credential, please view some additional information about micro-credentials by clicking the link below:
