

Session Description: Teachers aren't the only ones who need PD! As principals we are the lead learners in the building and need our own professional learning. Join us to learn ways to develop your own habit of professional reading and use that reading to improve your school! You will also walk away with two great tools to conduct PD with your own teachers, as well.