

Subject: Act 45 Credit Opportunity at the Upcoming PASAP Conference

We hope the new year is off to a successful start for you and your school community. We are excited to share an outstanding professional development opportunity available through the Pennsylvania Association of Student Assistance Professionals (PASAP) Conference. This year, we are pleased to offer Act 45 credits for principals and school administrators attending the conference.

The PASAP Conference is a premier event dedicated to fostering student success through innovative practices, evidence-based strategies, and a collaborative learning environment. By participating in the conference and engaging in sessions aligned with the Pennsylvania Inspired Leadership (PIL) program, attendees can earn valuable Act 45 credits while gaining insights to strengthen their leadership and support their schools.

Key Details:

- Event: PASAP Annual Conference
- Dates: February 23-25, 2025
- Location: Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center, State College, PA
- Act 45 Credits Available: 25 hours at the cost of $50 for materials

To earn Act 45 credits, participants will need to complete designated sessions and accompanying reflective activities based on one of the following book studies: Either Dare to Lead (by Brene Brown) or The Anxious Generation (by Johnathan Haidt). Detailed information regarding the eligible sessions and credit requirements will be provided upon registration, as well as the books you will be required to read and review.

We believe this is a tremendous opportunity to enhance your leadership capacity while connecting with like-minded professionals dedicated to student success. We encourage you to take advantage of this offering and share this information with your administrative team.

For additional information or to register for the conference, please visit <https://cvent.me/gVOx9V>. Should you have any questions about the Act 45 credit process, feel free to contact us at support@pasap.org.

Thank you for your dedication to fostering educational excellence and for your continued commitment to professional growth. We look forward to seeing you at the PASAP Conference and supporting you in earning your Act 45 credits.

Warm regards,
PASAP Board of Directors
