Join the Pennsylvania Principals Association for a day of collaboration and professional growth!

The AP & Dean Summit 2025 is designed to provide you with actionable strategies and practical tools to strengthen your leadership and impact in your school. This is your chance to connect with peers and learn from experienced leaders in the field.

Topics That Matter

Learn how to navigate the challenges of your role with sessions focused on:

- Building Positive Relationships: Cultivating trust and rapport with staff, students, and families
- Managing Competing Priorities: Balancing the many demands of the AP role
- Legal Best Practices: Staying informed and proactive on legal issues
- Working as Part of a Team: Strengthening collaboration with peers and administrators

You'll also hear from veteran assistant principals who have successfully navigated this role.

Who Should Attend?

Assistant Principals | Deans of Students
Aspiring Principals | Teacher Leaders

Why You Can't Miss This

This isn't just a day of lectures—it's an opportunity to connect with peers who understand your role. You will:

- Gain practical strategies you can apply immediately.
- Learn from experienced leaders in the field.
- Strengthen your leadership toolkit and drive meaningful change in your school.
