

LEARNING LEADER BOOK STUDY

What if the most powerful leadership lessons didn't start with strategies—but with people?

This five-session book study explores the leadership lessons found in Coffee with the Custodian, and the powerful role relationships play in shaping school culture.

Participants will reflect on themes of trust, service, human connection, and influence, and consider how those lessons apply to their own leadership practice.

AUTHOR Q&A

Brad Johnson will join participants during the final session on November 19 for a live discussion and conversation.
